

Chicopee Public Library
Book Donations

Thank you for your donation of books and / or videos. We appreciate your thinking of us and we will consider the items for inclusion in the library's collection. The collection is comprised of a variety of different materials and issues of space, duplication, processing, and available records are considerations determining whether donations are included. Materials that are not included in the collection may be placed in the book sale. Library book sale funds also benefit the library and provide alternative funding.

The Chicopee Public Library can not provide valuation for donated materials, but can provide an acknowledgement of their receipt.
